

Artist/Curator

September 8th - October 16th, 2023
Project Gallery V

New York, N.Y., August 7th, 2023 | Project Gallery V is pleased to present Artist/Curator, a group exhibition of nine former curators on the platform who each have an artistic practice of their own.

This exhibition features work from Adam Liam Rose, Cara Lynch, Cary Hulbert, Casey Jex Smith, Farah Mohammad, Karen Fitzgerald, Kellyann Monaghan, Libbi Ponce, and Trinity Lester.

Each of these nine artists has curated or juried an exhibition on the PGV platform that focused on the work of other emerging artists. As an artist-run organization, PGV has worked with many artist-curators over the last three years, however this is the first show highlighting their work.

Coincidentally, the artists in Artist/Curator exhibit some similar sensibilities in their styles; with compositional balance and organic forms being elements echoed by chance. Natural shapes flow and colors blend in dreamlike landscapes, serendipitously creating various harmonies throughout the pieces. Many works evoke a sense of movement while nodding to structure and pattern repetition. Comparisons aside however, each work successfully highlights the unique style of their artist-curator.

You can view Artist/Curator on the Project Gallery V website here.
